The AWEX EMI finished 14¢ higher (+1.0%) in Australian currency and 5¢ higher (+0.5%) in US currency at sales in Sydney, Melbourne and Fremantle in Week 23.

38,106 bales were on offer nationally, compared with 39,577 bales last sale. 6.6% of the offering was passed in after 4.2% of the potential offering was withdrawn prior to sale. 35,608 bales were sold.

AWEX reports that the value of the wool sold was $57.5 million ($1,615 per bale), taking the season total to $1.053 billion ($1,612 per bale). The number of bales sold at auction this season is now 21.1% greater than in 2020/21.

The New Zealand Merino Company also offered 940 bales in Melbourne on Wednesday, of which 14.5% were passed in.

The market opened on a positive basis with gains across almost all Merino and Crossbred micron ranges on Tuesday; and continued on in a similar manner on Wednesday, to finish with gains in both Australian and US currency. It has not been an easy year for the Crossbreds, but they achieved the largest increases of the current sale.

The price movements in Australian currency were assisted by a further fall in the US Exchange Rate which finished 0.36¢ (-0.5%) lower when it closed at 71.33¢ on Wednesday. This was a new low for the season, and is 4.15¢ less than the peak value of 75.26¢ in the last week of October.

Buyers for China were dominant, with support from buyers for India and Europe.

Looking ahead, next week's sale will be the last before Christmas; at which the offering is expected to be 42,036 bales. This is 11.1% greater than in the same week last year; and will take the progressive number of bales offered to 14.9% more than in the first 24 sales last year.

In other countries, South African sales are in recess this week and will resume on 12 January.
